Remember the Carson Guard ball next Monday evening.

There are 50,000 Indian children in this land, and only 15,000 of them go to school. That leaves about 35,000 that will have to be shot one of these days and we only have about 20,000 soldiers to shoot them. —Truckee Republican.

Those who witnessed the wonderful manifestations of Slater, at Odd Fellows' Hall were amazed and awed at his exhibition of spiritual power. The white members of the Nick of the Woods Combination went to Reno last night on a special, and John Mack chartered a box car on yesterday morning's local with the Indians. ## Our 'Frisco Letter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15, '92.
ED. APPEAL.—The visitors that come and go from your State are hard to keep track of in this lively community, but as occasion justifies them about, they come to the top, as it were, and their countenances beam forth like the sun from a bank of fog.

Among the transients who have been able to get away, I have seen some of your most prominent representatives. Governor Colcord has been at the Palace this last week, with his pleasant manner and strong championship for old Nevada. Your Judges, Rising and Belknap, likewise registered there. Evan Williams and D. B. Lyman are here in connection with the Hale and Norcross suit. Jake Klein, whose mission of sadness robbed Carson of his presence, finds many friends about the Palace corridors. D. L. Bliss, Dr. Thoma and others appear once in awhile. Ex-Congressman, George Cassidy, is here, and lawyer Baker, who says he has a fine practice started.

I saw Mrs. Emma Meyers (nee Friend) one day, she is teaching music here—and eminently qualified too. Kate Fellows looks about as usual. Mayne Gilson hasn't grown a particle. Miss Rit Edwards is a very charming and pretty girl and quite civilized. Old Cap. Cowing is doing well in the undertaking business. That reminds me that I saw George Cowing, who lived in Carson five years ago, at the Tivoli with his wife, he wears a plug hat to good advantage.

Mr. Elison, he of the rich, deep, bass voice, has shaved of his beard to deceive the zephyrs—otherwise he seems unaltered. C. P. Young our ex-Supt. of Public Instruction resides in San Francisco. Ernest Cary is a sub. in the composing rooms of the Examiner. I get a glimpse now and then of Frank Gundry, Al. Lind and Dick Allen as they go to their several occupations. Jack Carpenter retains his semblance of a finished minstrel. He owes that development to our home talent. Harry Pfaff, Pier Jacobs and Jim Brazil are luxuriating here and are all "fat and sassy." They still seem to loom up and I am busy jotting them down. Will try to send you some more soon. M.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

"White Caps" have warned Elizabethtown, Ky., whisky sellers to shut up shop or be closed up by force.

At the opening of a dance house at Sand Point, Idaho, yesterday, two men and two women were fatally shot.

Mount Nagashoe, a volcano in New Zealand, is in a state of violent eruption. The eruption is accompanied by earthquakes.

Negro citizens of Nashville asked the Board of Public Works to allow their race to be represented on the police force. They were refused.

After James Donnelly a Plainfield, N. J., boy had regaled himself with twenty-four raw eggs and twenty glasses of beer, he fell into convulsions and died.

Farmers near Leeds, N. D., are complaining of the depredations of a herd of antelope that is destroying great quantities of unthrashed grain flax seeming to be the favorite food.

The ministers at Omaha are making a moral crusade against the pictures of actresses as they appear on the bill-boards. An effort will be made to have the police tear them down.

The appraisers of the estate of the late United States Circuit Judge Lorenzo Sawyer have reported to the Probate Court. The total value of the estate is shown to be $129,290.46.

Jim Corbett met three men in one ring in New York yesterday. Wm. Spilling was knocked out in one round. Tom Chaffe was at Jim's mercy, and the police ordered him out. Joe Lannan made a good stand and Jim only hit him once. Guess he couldn't buy Lannan.

The cowboys of New Mexico are fighting with the Navajo Indians. The Indians are killing cattle in the most wanton manner. One firm has lost 15,000 and the cowboys have banded together to stop the outrages. The Indians outnumber the whites but are not so well armed. Several have been killed and wounded on both sides and at last accounts the fighting was still going on.

PERSONAL.

Orvis Ring departed on last evening's train.

Joseph Beer, the Virginia grocer, went below last night.

Mrs. Robt. Grimmon returned from Virginia last night.

Judge Whitcher of Virginia, departed for San Francisco last night.

Ollie Tennant and Fred Gifford did some fancy skating at the rink last night.

Frank Folom says his injuries don't amount to much—they are all "in his eye."

The "Wasp" Changes Hands.

The San Francisco Wasp has been sold by General Backus to a corporation whose directors are J. C. Quinn, D. M. Burns, T. E. Flynn and a son of General Backus. The Democrats were endeavoring to capture the publication for campaign purposes, hence the new corporation comprised wholly of Republicans. T. E. Flynn, a well known newspaperman and writer of "Flynders" in the Sunday Chronicle, will be manager. He is a clever cartoonist as well as a bright writer.

The bill appropriating $300,000 for a bronze equestrian statue of Gen. Grant in Washington, D. C., passed by the Senate during the last Congress, has been again favorably reported to the Senate. Its passage by the Senate is certain and the same ought to be true of the House, but it isn't. He is a rash man who attempts to predict what the befuddled majority of the House will do. So far it does nothing with great industry.

At a big cattle sale in Kansas City recently, said to be the largest in that city since the boom times of 1882 and 1883, the Waddingham Bell Ranch Cattle Company of New Mexico sold 4,000 2-year-old steers at $15 a head and 3,000 3-year-old steers at $19 a head. The ranch company owns 700,000 acres of land.

An accident occurred in the Mollie Gibson mine at Aspen, Col., Tuesday morning, through which three miners were killed. The victims are Michael Egners, who leaves a widow and six children, and W. L. Shirpen and C. Aples, unmarried. The Mollie Gibson is the richest silver mine in the world.
